Toni Mosely, Tiny Bubbles, Hand painted screen-print 2017 60cm wide x 79cm high.

A small old fashioned brown suitcase sits just below centre on the right side of this picture. It's lid is open, releasing tiny lilac bubbles that float upwards. Behind the case is a large pale blue bubble. Across the large bubble float smaller bubbles of various sizes and shades of blue, grey and purple. Just one has escaped heading to the top left hand corner. The surface of each bubble is marked with tiny white circles as if a multitude of little clear bubbles is floating across the space.
